

Pages 70 and 71 — Punctuating Speech

1. "Please tidy your room before dinner," said Mum.
The judge announced, "The winner is Nadia."
"I swept up the leaves," she said.
Ibrahim explained, "I didn't eat your sandwich."
"He told me what you did," said the teacher.
2. "Can I look after your dog?" asked my friend.
"We should work together on the project," said Polly.
Mr Lipton shouted, "Get out of my garden!"
The police officer asked, "What did the thief look like?"
3. You should have ticked these sentences:
She said, "Give the red sweets to Larry."
"I need to visit the dentist soon," said Shona.
4. Sophie said, "Netball is my favourite sport."
"What time does it start?" asked Liam.
"How exhausted I am!" he exclaimed.
"You should eat more fruit," said the doctor.
5. "I will help you build a sandcastle," said Mia.
"Take the dog for a walk," said Dad.
"Can we plant some flowers?" asked my little brother.
Johan shouted, "Show me where you've hidden the toys!"