

Pages 72 and 73 — Direct and Reported Speech

1. Direct speech:

"I can't tell you because it's a secret," he said.

"Listen to me!" yelled Kyle.

Benaiah asked, "What is that smell?"

Reported speech:

Lynn said you should ask him.

They told us you went to London.

2. You should have matched the following pairs:

"I'm very thirsty," said Kirsty. — Kirsty said she was thirsty.

We said, "We can't go today." — We said we couldn't go today.

Zack shouted, "Come back!" — Zack shouted for us to come back.

3. You should have ticked these sentences:
I can't find my gloves, said Ameera.
Vinny said, This level is easier than the first one.
My name is Feathers, said the parrot.
4. Direct speech:
"Why are you upset?"
"Get out of my way!"
"Let's buy them a gift."
Reported speech:
He said he hates cats.
We told them to behave.
I said I needed help.