

Joan of Arc (pages 70–73)

Answers

• Test 1: Concluding.....(Page 71)

1. (b)
2. They requested a new trial in which she was found to be innocent in 1455, twenty-four years after her death.
3. (d)
4. Teacher check

• Test 2: Summarising.....(Page 72)

1. (c)
2. The messages had told her to help him and she believed he was the rightful king of France.
3. She convinced Charles VII to let her lead an army against the English. After successful battles in northern France she watched Charles be crowned. Captured in 1430 by the Burgundians, she was sold to the English and burned at the stake for witchcraft and heresy.
4. (a)

• Test 3: Inferring.....(Page 73)

1. (d)
2. (b)
3. The English occupied Paris and much of northern France.
4. Only men fought in the army.
5. 1453; England and France were at war until 1453.