Christmas Cards

Hopefully, you saw the email notice today regarding chocolate in Christmas cards. I can only offer my apologies that some cards were already sent home last week with chocolates in them. We take children's allergies very seriously and this was an oversight on our part. I am sure you can understand the challenges faced at this time of year when there are so many cards to be given to the correct children as well as arranging stamps etc. If your child's cards have been sent home then please remove the chocolate and send them back. If the envelope is destroyed, don't worry we will make sure the cards get to the correct person- no need to buy any more stamps or rewrite cards.

Phonics support

Please make sure that you have a look at the phonics video on Google Classroom that has been set as an assignment and select hand in when you have watched it.
