

Unit K: Eating Out

French

We will learn to:

- Understand some unfamiliar vocabulary and the main points of a story, including opinions, in its spoken and written versions.
- Recognise subject pronouns, and use "il" and "elle" with verbs in speech and writing to form sentences about what someone is having to eat/drink, from memory.
- Recognise that 'vous' is used for more than one person, or in formal situations, and that 'tu' is used for one person in informal situations.

Pāṇini (between 6th and 4th century BCE)
He is known for his contribution to the grammar. Panini's grammar, widely known as the 'Ashtadhyayi', is acclaimed by linguists all over the world as the most perfect model of grammar.

We will practise these skills:

- Understand the main points, including simple opinions, from a short spoken passage that contains some unfamiliar language.
- Understand the main points from a spoken story or poem, which contains some unfamiliar language.
- Join in with a short, continuous conversation, including giving simple opinions.
- Adapt familiar sentences by changing a few words.
- Describe what other people do, or like doing.
- Use the third person singular form of the present tense to describe what others are doing, e.g. 'il/elle danse'

We will ask and answer these questions:
