

Religious Education Judaism – Shabbat

Y2

The family and community are very important within Jewish life. The most important day of the week is Shabbat (the Sabbath). It is the day on which Jews remember the seventh day of creation on which God rested. Jews stop working and make time for God and family life. It is a time prayer, study of the Torah and rest. There are a number of rules about the Shabbat, there must be no work, use of any form of transport, electricity (anything that makes fire), the spending of money or use of the phone etc. It begins on Friday evening when it is dark and ends on Saturday evening when it is dark. Everyone plays a part in the ritual at home.
