

Unit H: The Body

French

We will learn to:

- Name parts of the face.
- Say basic verbs in the first person.
- Say that something hurts.
- Name fairy tale characters.
- Say traditional fairy tale locations.

We will practise these skills:

- Be able to identify the gender of a noun from its article when listening and reading.
- Use the correct article with some common nouns when speaking and writing.
- Recite a simple French rhyme from memory, with some verbal or visual prompts.
- Describe things using simple adjectives.

Important figures:

Félix Éboué (1884 – 1944)

The first black French man appointed to a high post in the French colonies. He helped to improve the treatment of people there. He was the first person of colour to be buried with honours in the Pantheon in Paris.
