

BRITISH VALUES

As part of our ongoing commitment to the British Values Curriculum and our unique Rainbow Curriculum here at St Anselm's, we invite you to read this story with your children. Your involvement is crucial in reinforcing these values and qualities at home, so please take a moment to explore the themes and talk about them together. Let's work hand in hand to inspire thoughtful conversations and help our children be good friends, deep thinkers and morally responsible citizens with an active voice, who are informed to make positive contributions to society.

Can donating something important be a powerful way to show you care?

In the news this week

A vehicle once used by Pope Francis to wave and greet people—called a popemobile—is being turned into a mobile health clinic for children in Gaza. Pope Francis, who recently passed away, was the head of the Catholic Church and often spoke about helping others. One of his final wishes was to help children affected by the conflict in Gaza. The vehicle will be refitted with medical equipment, as found in ambulances, so it can be used to aid children in areas where hospitals may be hard to reach. The project aims to deliver essential medical care to those who need it.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > What is your opinion of Pope Francis' decision to donate the popemobile? Why do you believe he decided to do this? Ask someone at home about their thoughts.
- > Have you ever donated something? Could it be harder to donate something that's important to you?
- > Can you think of examples of different times when people might donate items to help others?

Which British Value?

INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY

We all have rights and responsibilities.

Our rights can change if we don't act responsibly.

What can we learn from this?

We each have the freedom to make kind and generous choices. We can show compassion by giving what we can to those in need.

KINDNESS AND COMPASSION

What can we learn from this?

This powerful act of kindness reminds us how important it is to care for others, especially those who are suffering.

By giving up something important to help children in need, Pope Francis is showing us what compassion really means. It teaches us that even small acts of love and generosity can make a big difference in the lives of others.

Let's all be inspired to show kindness wherever we can—in our words, our actions, and the way we treat one another every day.
