

BRITISH VALUES

As part of our ongoing commitment to the British Values Curriculum and our unique Rainbow Curriculum here at St Anselm's, we invite you to read this story with your children. Your involvement is crucial in reinforcing these values and qualities at home, so please take a moment to explore the themes and talk about them together. Let's work hand in hand to inspire thoughtful conversations and help our children be good friends, deep thinkers and morally responsible citizens with an active voice, who are informed to make positive contributions to society.

In the news this week

Tennis player, Emma Raducanu, has revealed she would like to meet darts player, Luke Littler, after he recently became the world darts champion. Comparisons between the two young sports stars have been highlighted. Raducanu was 18 when she became the only qualifier in history to claim a Grand Slam title, by winning the 2021 US Open. Similarly, Littler became the youngest-ever World Darts Championship winner at 17.

Things to talk about at home ...

- How do you think Luke Littler felt when he became the youngest-ever World Darts Championship winner at 17? How do you think he might be feeling now about future competitions?
- Can you think of a time when you were under a lot of pressure to succeed or achieve something? Share it with someone at home. Can they recall a similar time?

Which British Value?

INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY

We all have rights and responsibilities.

Our rights can change if we don't act responsibly.

What can we learn from this?

We all have the freedom to set our own personal goals and work towards them. We can each choose how to approach challenges, whether we thrive under pressure or prefer a calmer path.

RESILIENCE AND ADAPTABILITY

What can we learn from this?

Emma Raducanu and Luke Littler show us how being strong and flexible can help us succeed. Both became champions at a young age, but their journeys haven't always been easy. Emma had to deal with injuries and big expectations, while Luke had to adjust quickly to being in the spotlight. Instead of giving up, they kept working hard and learned to adapt to new challenges. Their stories teach us that success isn't just about winning—it's about never giving up, learning from mistakes, and always trying our best, no matter what happens!
