St Anselm said:

“God hath promised pardon to him that repenteth, but he hath not promised repentance to him that sinneth.”

What do you think this means?

"God hath promised pardon to him that repenteth,
but he hath not promised repentance to him that sinneeth!"

God has promised to forgive the people who are truly sorry but don't forgive the people who are not.

Parsy

"God hath promised pardon to him that repenteth, but he hath not promised repentance to him that sinneth."

I think this means if you took somebody's thing you need to say sorry and give the person's thing back. If you do it by accident, God will forgive you. But if you thought about doing it before hand, God won't forgive you. If you thought to do it your stealing.

If you something wrong like steal thing that its not

yours that you dont who it for and steal by a accident God will forgive you. If you do something wrong like stealing, On purpose. God will not forgive you.

Be honest so god can forgive you. If you don't <sup>you</sup> will be not forgiven.

St Anselm said:

What do you think this means?

“ I believe in order that I may understand.”

I believe in God because he's kind
and loving and he all ways forgives
us when we do something wrong.!

by Nancy.

"I believe in order that I may understand."

I think this means that saint Anselm understands what he believes in he can't see it but he believes in it. Also we can't see God but we still believe in him. You should listen to St Anselm because he is an inspiration person. He believes in what is right. You have to believe in St Anselm we can't see him but we believe in him.

Jade.F

I believe in order that I may understand

I think it means that if you believe in God you can understand more about God. And I know ~~the~~ God is our father because he created the world.

Gabbey

66 | believe in order that I may understand

I think this means that you have to believe to understand

So if you don't believe you don't understand.

And I feel thinking that is means that you

Should show forgiveness, if you don't believe or learn in God you never understand

MJ

I believe in order that I may understand

I think this quote means if you believe in god you will understand the bible better.

"I believe in order that I may understand", if you can not see God you have to believe in Him because he made the word and if you don't believe in God's words you won't be believing in Him you can not learn from Him.

St Anselm said:

“God is that, the greater than which cannot be conceived.”

What do you think this means?

God <sup>control</sup> is that, the greater than which cannot be conceived. I think it means God will never
stop working everyone
and will never desire
to be mean.

"God is that the greater than which cannot be convinced".

I think this means that God is better than all of us because he created earth. We need to believe ~~in~~ god because he is our biggest inspiration. Hannah

"God is that, the greater than which cannot be conceived." I think this means that God is the greatest thing that anyone has thought of. We cannot see God but He is with us because of he is our God. We can see him because of everything we do like our kindness the world
begins all these things we do in this world God is with us.

Emmanuel
