

In our final newsletter for the year, there are a few notices to ensure the end of term runs smoothly!

Workbooks and folders

On Tuesday, the children will take home books that they have used to write in at school. This is a great opportunity for you to see how well your child has progressed from September to now. If your child does not have one of their books it is because we have kept it for moderation purposes and it will be returned to them next year. This is what you should expect:

- Phonics book
- Maths book (the majority of our Maths has been practical this year so there are pages left in this book for the children to practise their number work in the summer holidays!)
- Writing folder
- RE folder

Reading

Thank you for returning your reading folders.

As I mentioned last week, it is important that you continue reading with your child as much as possible during the holidays. The Oxford Owl link with username and password are on Google Classroom.

Tapestry

Your tapestry accounts will be deactivated at the end of term. You can download your child's learning journal by following the instructions on this link.

On the school website in the Video Resources section we have made a video for the new starters in September- it features your children and is a real celebration of everything they have done this year so you might like to have a look.

Finally, we would like to say how much we have enjoyed getting to know your children this year. We are astounded by how much progress they have made. Everything this year has thrown at them, they have taken in their stride!

We are ever so grateful for the support that you have given them. You have all been a vital part of 'Team Sunflowers'. The words of encouragement, gifts and cards that we have received have meant so much to us.

We hope that you have a wonderful summer holiday and please rest assured that your children are so ready for Year 1. We can't wait to see them fly as beautiful Butterflies.

Best Wishes,

Mrs Munday and Mrs D'Mello
