

Pages 58 and 59 — Inverted Commas

1. You should have ticked these sentences:
“Please may I have a sandwich?” asked Ava.
“Add some salt to the soup,” said the chef.
2. You should have added these inverted commas:
“I’ve got new spotty wellies,” said Nasreen.
“I’m going to explore the attic next,” said Ruby.
“Art is my favourite subject,” said Bryony.
“My mum’s name is Jackie,” I said.
“Mushrooms are slimy and horrible,” said Dan.
3. You should have circled these inverted commas:
“My mum is getting married,” said Rosie.
“When can we go outside?” asked Christopher.
“We’re having a party soon,” said Alex.
“Please can we have pasta for tea?” asked Maya.
“Be careful with that!” shouted Mrs Wilkins.
“Are you posting that letter?” asked David.
4. You should have added these inverted commas:
“Can you give me some advice?” asked Dylan.
“I’m going to win the race,” said Alison.
“Yes, I’d love to go,” replied Matteo.
“There’s a hole in my shoe!” said Kirsty.
“Let’s go and play in the snow,” said Luca.
