

4. You should have ticked:
whilst swimming
extremely quietly
around the room
The sentences should read:
She danced around the room.
I whispered extremely quietly.
Caroline got wet whilst swimming.

Pages 20 and 21 — Adverbial Phrases as Introductions

1. On the way home, we visited Grandma and Grandad.
Before breakfast, I went for a run.
Very patiently, David built the tower of cards.
After six years as a doctor, John left his job.
All of a sudden, Helen stormed out.
Last month, Molly started a new school.
2. Near the river, Jo built a tree house.
Very angrily, Jack smashed the glass.
Once a week, I buy a magazine.
3. You should have ticked:
At school, people often confuse us.
With care, we decorated the birthday cake.
Corrected sentences:
Every Sunday morning, I have pancakes.
On the bottom shelf, there are three books.
4. Any sensible adverbial phrases used correctly.
Examples:
After lunch, we went for a walk.
On the table, there's a bunch of flowers.
Quite nervously, Jeremy began his speech.
Very bravely, my dad rescued the rabbit.
5. Any sentence about the picture where an adverbial phrase is used correctly at the start of the sentence.
Example:
Ridiculously loudly, the baby screamed for its mum.

Section 4 — Conjunctions and Prepositions

Pages 22 and 23 — Conjunctions

1. I think I'll go to the shop, and I'll buy some bananas.
We need a new computer, for our old one is broken.
The weather was bad, so we didn't go for a walk.
You can go home, or you can come with me.

2. Edgar was thirsty, so I poured him a drink.
Tom likes chess, and he likes dancing.
I don't eat meat, but I do eat fish.
We could go out, or we could stay in.
3. The runners are happy because they won the race.
Let's get some petrol before we run out.
We'll arrive on time if we hurry up.
You can watch TV unless it's still broken.
4. I will wait until you arrive.
While you were away, Jodie watered the plants.
We missed our flight because we got stuck in traffic.
If we can't get tickets, we'll watch the match on TV.
Since he went away, we've had no one to play with.

Pages 24 and 25 — Prepositions

1. The teddy is under (or) beneath the table.
The boy is behind the chair.
The cat is on the chair.
The lamp is on the table.
The table is next to (or) beside (or) by the chair.
2. The waiter put flowers on the tables. — where I've been playing the violin since 2012. — when I hid behind the door to surprise him. — where He felt sick from eating too many sweets. — why I found the money after a good search. — when I can't go because of my dad's birthday. — why
3. Mike's been playing tennis since 10 o'clock this morning.
You need to wash your hands before dinner.
We played golf from 9 am until 12 pm.
The film's almost finished — it's near the end.
The referee handed out two red cards during the match.
4. Ollie lived in a house by the seaside.
They left the presents on the table.
I felt really tired after my swimming lesson.
Andy ordered a pizza without cheese.
We walked slowly towards the classroom.
My cat loves to sleep in the laundry basket.
5. Any sentence that uses a preposition correctly.
Examples:
I left my homework on the kitchen table.
We went for burgers after the rugby match.