

3 Write the phrases onto the correct side of the board to show why they need apostrophes.

- Meg's dad
- it's better
- that's a fact
- Tim's bear
- a mole's tunnel
- he didn't
- I couldn't
- the parrots' cage

for missing letters	to show possession
.....
.....
.....
.....

4 Put apostrophes into the underlined words in the passage below.

Wow, what a day i t s been! We went to see my friend N i k i t a s new puppy. His n a m e s Pogo and h e s a Labrador. When we got there, Pogo ran straight up to us as if w e d known him all his life. He nearly knocked my d a d s things out of his hands!

"I can use apostrophes correctly."   