

- In Medieval England, many nobles lived in castles.
After that five-hour walk, I'm exhausted!
Every year, the drama group puts on a play.
In the flat next door, there's a lady with pink hair.
- Any sentence where commas are used correctly.
Examples:
A week ago, I caught the train to Glasgow.
Under my brother's bed, there's a lot of mess.
After school, I always have a glass of juice.

Pages 48 and 49 — Comma Practice

- You should have ticked:
In Australia, it is common for people to eat kangaroo meat!
Although it was dark, Anjesh went for a run.
Because he was snoring, we woke Dad up.

These are the sentences you should have crossed, written out correctly:
We went for a walk, played in the park and washed the dog.
If she works hard at school, Tilly's gran will take her shopping.
During the war, food was rationed.
In the future, humans might live on Mars.

- He ordered bacon, eggs, toast and sausages.
In my village, there's a haunted house.
While Mum drove, Dad read the map.
Although it's boring, broccoli is very healthy.
- You will need a ready-made pizza base, tomato sauce, mozzarella cheese and your choice of toppings.
You could top your pizza with ham, pepperoni, olives or peppers.
When you've finished adding the ingredients, the pizza can go in the oven. After about fifteen minutes, your pizza should be ready!

Section 9 — Apostrophes

Pages 50 and 51 — Apostrophes for Missing Letters

- You should have matched these pairs:
what has — what's
why is — why's
we had — we'd
you will — you'll
must not — mustn't

- You should have circled these words:
should've
When'll
where's hadn't it'll he'd

- You should have circled these words, and then written these pairs of words underneath them:

I'm — I am She's — She is won't — will not we'll — we will
isn't — is not you've — you have We're — We are

- they have — they've
she had — she'd
we would — we'd it has — it's
are not — aren't
could have — could've

- Any sentence where two words shortened with apostrophes are used correctly.
Examples:
Ask them and they'll tell you I didn't do it!

Pages 52 and 53 — Apostrophes for Single Possession

- friend's business's
scarf's
actress's
- camel's
daisy's
leaf's
pizza's
shed's
- market's
today's fairy's
gnome's
captain's island's
- Lucas's pencil
Emma's cow
Hans's car
Yasmin's snake