- 1 Search for the Loch Ness Monster.
- 2 Anne Grey / John Johnson.
- 3 'on the banks of Loch Ness'.
- 4 Maggie Brown.
- 5 'the whole family'.
- 6 a more than she bargained for: more than she expected b award-winning; someone who has won awards for their work c not going mad: she isn't seeing things / imagining things
- 7 a realistic: made to seem natural and real b legendary: very famous or well known for a long time c convince: make someone believe something
- 8 'Can she convince people that she is not going mad?'
Answers that suggest the only way to find the answer is to see the film.
- 9 Answers that suggest people who watch films and write about them for a living think the film is good. This encourages others to go and see it.
- 10 Answers that suggest, as the poster is trying to persuade people to see the film, it will not include anything that may persuade people not to see it (i.e. dissuade them).

- 11 Answers that suggest that it is important for the monster to be 'realistic' as people who watch the film must be convinced that the monster is 'real'.
